

MAP Oil Tools

MAP Oil Tools

MG-1 - Retrievable Compression Packer, G type

The Model MG-1 Retrievable Compression Packer is a compact, economical set-down packer that can be used by itself for production applications or, with a companion unloader and hold-down, it can be used for well stimulation, testing and other pressuring operations and then left in the well as a production packer. Short and compact Permits passage of recording instruments Low cost Alternate packing element system Simple construction Ease of operation Alternate body with larger I.D. Â